PHILADELPHIA.

An ACT to prevent the Destruction of Rock-Fish and Oysters.

WHEREAS the catching small Rock-Fish, and the taking Oysters at improper Times, tend to deprive the Markets in this Province of such Supplies of them, as by prudent Regulations may be continued; Be it therefore enacted by the Honourable JOHN PENN, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, under the Honourable THOMAS PENN, and RICHARD PENN, Esquires, true and absolute Proprietaries of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, upon Delaware, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Representatives of the Freemen of the said Province, in General Assembly met, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall at any Time between the First Day of March, and the First Day of December, in any Year after the Publication of this Act, at any Place within this Province, offer to Sale, any Rock Fish, which shall not measure twelve inches at least from the Eye to the Fork of the Tail thereof; or if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time, between the Tenth Day of May, and the First Day of September, in any Year after the Publication hereof, at any Place within this Province, offer to Sale, any Oysters whatsoever, the Person or Persons, so offending, shall forfeit such Fish or Oysters; And the Clerk of the Market, or any Overseer of the Poor, or Constable in the City of Philadelphia, or any Overseer of the Poor or Constable of the Borough, District or Township respectively, in which any Fish or Oysters shall be offered to Sale contrary to this Act, shall, and are hereby required immediately to seize the same, for the Use of the Poor of such City, Borough, District or Township.

And whereas it has been a Practice with some Persons, who carry about Oysters for Sale, to cover such Oysters with Clams, alleging that they do not offer such Oysters to Sale, yet dispose thereof contrary to Law, falsely pretending to sell Clams only; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time between the Tenth Day of May, and the First Day of September, as aforesaid, at any Place within this Province, carry about, or have in his Possession at the same Time, any Oysters, together with Clams, or other Articles, offering such Clams or other Articles for Sale, every such Person or Persons so offending, shall forfeit such Clams, or other Articles, together with such Oysters; And the Clerk of the Market, or any Overseer of the Poor, or Constable of the City of Philadelphia, or any Overseer of the Poor, or Constable of the Borough, District or Township respectively in which such Clams, or other Articles, shall be so offered to Sale, shall immediately seize the same, together with such Oysters, for the Use of the Poor of such City, Borough, District or Township.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved by such Seizure as aforesaid, he, she or they, may appeal to any Justice of the Peace, in and for the City, Borough or County, where such Seizure shall be made, who is hereby empowered to hear, and finally determine the same; and if thereupon it shall be adjudged by such Justice, that the Seizure was legally made, the Person or Persons so appealing, shall further forfeit Ten Shillings for the Use of the Poor of the City, Borough, District or Township respectively, in which such Seizure shall be made.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act, entitled, "An Act to prevent the Destruction of small Rock Fish and taking of Oysters, and bringing them into this Province out of Season," passed in the Sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

By Captain ADAMSON, from Lisbon; Captain CARR, from Bristol; and Captain CHRISTIE, from London, we have the following advices, viz.

COPENHAGEN, December 8.

THE department of foreign affairs has sent a declaration from the King to all the Consuls, and to the Magistrates of this city, by which his Majesty permits all Captains of ships, who navigate in the Algerine seas, to attack any of the Corsairs of that Regency wherever they shall meet them, and to treat them according to the laws and customs of war, as declared enemies.

Verfailles Dec. 26. The day before yesterday the Duke de Vrilliere, Minister, and Secretary of State, demanded, on the part of the King, from the Duke de Choiseul, Minister, and State Secretary at War and Foreign Affairs, the resignation of his employments. The Duke de Choiseul is since gone to his estate at Chanteloux, in Tourain. The Duke de Vrilliere afterwards demanded on the part of the King, from the Duke de Praslin, Secretary of the Marine, and chief of the Council of Finances, also the resignation of his offices. The latter will set out in a few days for his seat at Praslin.

LONDON, January 5.

The Lords of the Admiralty have been so assiduous in the dispatch of business, that boards have been held each day since the commencement of the Holidays, New Year's day excepted. Yesterday a detachment from the Royal Regiment of Artillery marched for Portsmouth, to embark there for Gibraltar and Minorca, to complete the different companies at those places.

Lord W-----th's resignation was owing to some very warm words he made use of in the presence of the S-----h Ambassador, in declaring his opinion of the S-----h K-----g, and his Ministry, part of which was applied to the Amb-----r himself, in a conference regarding the accommodation of the dispute between us and S-----n, at which time the S-----ds had been pleased to start some fresh difficulties and objections.

The above expressions were of such a nature, that, as the M-----y want to prevent a war at all events, it was judged necessary that his L-----p should not continue longer in office, that the c-----n might not be made answerable for the conduct of one of its servants; and, at the same time, to throw a seeming disapprobation on it.

Jan. 8. We hear that the Court of Spain have agreed to the particular specification insisted on by England, of making a public example of the Governor of Buenos Ayres.

It is said that the Governor of Buenos Ayres urges in defence of his conduct, in making himself Master of Falkland Island, that a report was at that time current in those parts, that the English were meditating a design to retake possession of the Havanah, and that he was determined to be beforehand with them.

It is reported in the City, that the British Merchants at Lisbon have received a promise of being restored to their privileges. Lord Commissioner Bathurst will be appointed in a very short time, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal.

It is said, that Judge Bathurst will accept the seals, without any other stipulated terms or conditions, than what are incident to the office.

Jan. 10. Last Saturday Mr. Potter, the messenger, set off for France. Wednesday 12. fail of the line were commissioned.

Private letters received yesterday from Cadix affirm, that the second division of the grand fleet destined to protect Spanish America, left that port on the 6th ult. and that several private trading vessels set sail with them, to be under their protection. These letters add, that all preparations were making in that harbour for fitting out another squadron to cross the Atlantic, which would effectually secure their possessions in America from all accidents and surprises whatever, whether peace or war was the issue of the present altercation between Great-Britain and Spain.

An exact list of the French and Spanish marine has lately been procured by the Ministry at a great expence, which has occasioned orders to be given for encreasing the number of artificers now employed in the King's yard.

We are sorry to inform the public, that the Aurora, on board which the Supervisors embarked for India, is left in the Straights of Sunda.

A great number of seamen are ordered to be sent from Portsmouth on board two transport vessels, to reinforce the crews of his Majesty's ships on the American coast.

A correspondent observes, that the united powers of England, Scotland, America, France and Spain, are at present in force against the British Ministry; and that if they withstand this opposition six weeks longer, they must be more than mortal.

It is said that since the press warrants were first issued, to the present time, 15,000 men have been obtained for the sea service, the greater part of whom were impressed.

After the Earl of Stair was declared to be elected one of the 16 peers of Scotland on Wednesday last, the Earl of Selkirk entered a protest, (which was next day given in to the clerks in writing) to which most of the Noblemen, who voted for the Earl of Broadalbane, adhered; a copy of which here follows.

EDINBURGH, Jan. 2, 1771.

IDUNDAR, Earl of Selkirk, do protest against the Earl of Stair's being returned one of the 16 Peers of Scotland; because the ministers of state have, contrary to the rights of the constitution, used undue influence relative to this election, by writing circular letters to the Scots Peers in support of the Earl of Stair; sending these letters from the Secretary of State's office to Edinburgh, thence transmitted to all parts of Scotland by express; thereby attempting to intimidate all who have dependance on the favours of administration, from giving their votes in that unbiased manner, which is essential to the existence of liberty, and our free constitution. For although these letters may be couched in terms apparently inoffensive, and evasive of their real and essential meaning, yet there is no man of common sense but understands the intention; and therefore, I think it is the duty of those, who wish for the preservation of the independence of the Scots Peers, to oppose all such illegal and unconstitutional attempts. And altho' the Peers, who have voted for the Earl of Stair, may have strictly followed their own inclinations and opinions upon this occasion, against none of whom, nor against the Earl of Stair, is there any personal aspersion hereby intended; yet I do protest for myself, and for those who shall adhere to this my protest, that the election in his favour is rendered void and null, and therefore that the Earl of Broadalbane is duly elected our Representative, and ought to be returned accordingly.

(Signed) S E L K I R K.

And the following Noblemen adhere-----Bacleigh, Tweedale, Haddington, Buchan, Hyndford, Glencairn, Abayne, Elgin and Kincardin, Morray, Eglington, Elphinstone, and Elibank.

The Duke of Bacleigh seconded Lord Selkirk's protest.-----"I think (said his Grace) the interference of the Ministry in the election of the Peers of Scotland, is not only unconstitutional, but is a high affront to us. When I come here to give my voice in the election of one of our Representatives, I consider myself as a Judge. I am going to give my voice in the election of one of the supreme Judges of Great-Britain, and I look upon solicitation in such a case, to be the same as soliciting a Judge. The circular letters therefore are a high affront to us, and for my own part I do declare, that if ever I receive another such circular letter, if I can guess at its contents, I will put it into the fire unopened.-----This noble indignation warmed the hearts of every spirited hearer. Lord Elibank has also gained much honour by his spirited behaviour on this occasion.

Letters from Barcelona and St. Sebastian declare, that the Spanish Court had sent notices to the Merchants of those places, they might proceed as usual in their commerce with England, as at present there was no prospect of an immediate war with that Nation.

By the most authentic accounts from the coast of Barbary, we are informed, that the Algerines are in no fears about the efforts of the Danish fleet, their works being full, regular and strong, well supplied with cannon, guarded by well disciplined troops, and conducted by the ablest Engineers, among whom are several French, English and Irish, who, not meeting with proper encouragement in their own country, have retired to another, carrying their all upon the point of their swords.

St. James's, Jan. 12. The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Earl of Sandwich (in the Room of the Right Hon. Sir Edward Hawke, Knight of the Bath, who has resigned) John Buller, Esq; the Right Hon. Viscount Palmerston, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Charles Spencer, Esq; commonly called Lord Charles Spencer, the Right Hon. Wilmot Viscount Lisburne, of the kingdom of Ireland, Francis Holbourne, and Charles James Fox, Esquires, to be his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland, and the dominions, islands, and territories thereunto respectively belonging.

Jan. 12. When Sir Edward Hawke waited on his Majesty, to request permission to resign, his Majesty graciously asked him, if he had any cause of dissatisfaction, which was in his power to remove? Sir Edward answered no; but that his age and infirmities required retirement. His Majesty then offered him an Addition to his pension, or a Peerage; which the brave and worthy old officer declined, declaring that he was well satisfied with the recompence he had already received for any services he might have done his country. His Majesty then agreed to accept of his resignation.

The Ministers say, Sir Edward Hawke resigned on account of his ill state of health; but it is not true; Sir Edward is not worse now than he has been for some time past. The fact is, that he resigned, because he found his interest was gone before him. He found he was no longer Minister of the department he held. In plainer terms, he was counteracted by the Carlton-House Junta. We hear that the D--- of G----- has absolutely refused taking any part in any future administration at the request of his lady.

Advice is received by the Flanders mail, that the lines of St. Roch, before Gibraltar, have just been reinforced with 12,000 infantry, and 5000 cavalry.

Yesterday arrived a mail from New-York, which was brought by the Lord Hyde packet-boat, Capt. Goddard, after a passage of 26 days.

Jan. 14. A Court of Common Council is summoned to meet to-morrow, at Guildhall, in order, it is said, to consider of a petition to Parliament for leave to import wheat and flour from America; and also to allow a further time for paying the bounty to seamen.

Jan. 15. We are assured, that the office of Secretary of State has been offered to the Earl of Suffolk, but his Lordship declined, on account of not thinking himself equal to that post, giving very modestly for the reason, "that he thought a Secretary of State, especially at this crisis, was not made in a day; but that he was ready to accept of any employment that he could think himself qualified for."

A correspondent at Paris informs us, that a courier from Madrid (bringing dispatches to London for the Spanish Ambassador, Prince Masserano) stopped at Versailles, to deliver some letters he had in charge for the French Court; and that the King of France (after reading the letters for himself) ordered him to deliver the dispatches he was carrying to the Prince Masserano, which he opened and read. On discovering that the King of Spain was still determined for War, he sent back the dispatches, under cover of a very long letter, written with his own hand, to the Spanish Monarch; wherein he informed him, that, if he still persisted in his warlike intentions, he should find himself under an absolute necessity of dissolving the family compact. Two days after this letter was sent off, the Dukes of Choiseul and Praslin were disgraced.

We are well informed, by a gentleman perfectly well acquainted with the French finances, that the revenues of that kingdom are so deeply mortgaged to the Farmers General, that at this instant they are spending the revenues of 1778. This plainly accounts for their aversion to war.

It is said, that a convention between the Crowns of Great-Britain and Spain, with regard to their respective limits, will speedily be exchanged.

It was last night current at the west end of the town, that the Spaniards had consented to the immediate payment of one part of the Manilla ransom.

Yesterday evening, at five o'clock, died at his house in Bloomsbury-square, his Grace John Russell, Duke of Bedford, Marquis of Tavistock, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the counties of Bedford and Devon, Colonel of the first regiment of the Devonshire Militia, Vice Admiral of the coasts of Devon, High Steward of the Corporation of Huntingdon, an elder Brother of the Trinity-House, President of the Foundling Hospital, one of the Governors of the Charter-House, Chancellor of the University of Dublin, Recorder of Bedford, L. L. D. and Knight of the Garter.

His Grace Feb. 10, 1763, signed the ratification of the definitive treaty of peace with France and Spain, and exchanged these ratifications on March 10 ensuing.

Jan. 18. We are assured that Lord Sandwich's appointment to the Admiralty is only pro tempore, and that Sir Charles Saunders will soon be appointed to that office.

Wednesday evening, at 5 o'clock, a Spanish courier extraordinary arrived at his Excellency's the Spanish Ambassador's house in Great Ormond-street, with dispatches; the contents of which have not as yet transpired.

The fleet for the East-Indies is now entirely settled. It is to consist of 6 fail of the line, with frigates, &c. and if a war breaks out, we hear there is a cautionary clause in the contract between Government and the East-India Company for encreasing it. The Northumberland man of war, with 5 other vessels, are now fitting out with the greatest expedition for this destination, and the several stores are already prepared.

Fresh orders are issued to inspect the ports and harbours, &c. on the coasts of Scotland and Ireland, that they may be repaired forthwith.

There is an express sent down to the several Dock-yards for all the artificers to work double days, Sundays included. By this we see, that it is thought more necessary to expedite our naval preparations now than before.

The issue of the messages to and from Spain, whatever it is, will not be made public till the arrival of C. F. Esq; from Paris, who, it is now well known, went to get information.

We are assured, that the French have, within these few months past, cut down on the Island of Corfica, and sent to Toulon, timber sufficient to build 20 capital ships of the line.

One of the most distinguished Members of the Grand Chamber of the Parliament of Paris made the following speech in a late assembly of that Parliament: "I am not ignorant that my head is proscribed; however, notwithstanding the assurance I have that the blow would certainly have been struck but for the particular goodness of the King, my opinion is, that magistrates, covered with ignominy, cannot exercise with dignity the functions of the magistracy; that they ought to beseech his Majesty either to withdraw his edict, or to retake their offices, and dispose of their heads. With these sentiments I am ready to defend to my grave. I deposite them in the breast of the company."

Jan. 22. Orders are given for a large quantity of oak timber to be speedily imported from our American settlements for ship-building, by order of the Admiralty Board.

Letters from Turin mention, that a commercial treaty of importance, is nearly concluded between that Court, and the Court of Portugal.

Private Letters from Paris mention, that the Duke de Vrilliere's power over the King increases daily; he has introduced one of his creatures at Court, Count de Beauteville, who is become a great favourite, and conducts himself with so much arrogance, that the people are said to be universally discontented.

From the positive assertions of the French Ministers, it is said they do not intend immediately entering into the disputes between Great-Britain and Spain.

The French did not enter publicly into the quarrel, which occasioned the war between England and Spain in the year 1739, for above four years after, though they almost ruined our trade during that time, by sending out great numbers of their privateers under Spanish colours.

The last letters from Brest mention, that 59 sea Lieutenants, who had been discharged from the King's service since the conclusion of the last peace, had all been just reinstated in the same station as before they were discharged; by which it appears how diligent the French are in fitting out a numerous fleet.

The number of seamen intended to be raised, is said to be very near completed. And it is said, that whether there should ensue war or peace, the present number will be kept up; that our marine may be always in such a respectable situation, as to put it out of the power of any of our competitors to brave us on that element.

[For new ADVERTISEMENTS, see the fourth Page.]

By the Ship BRITANNIA, Captain FALCONER, arrived here from London; and Captain BETTON, arrived at New-York from Liverpool, we have the following advices, viz.

LONDON, January 28.

ABOUT three o'clock on Friday afternoon, the Right Hon. Lord North laid before the House of Commons, by his Majesty's command, the two following papers.

Translation of the Declaration, signed and delivered by Prince de Maserano, Ambassador extraordinary from his Catholic Majesty, dated the 22d day of January, 1771.

"His Britannic Majesty having complained of the violence which was committed on the 10th of June, 1770, at the island, commonly called the Great Malouine, and by the English, Falkland's Island, in obliging, by force, the commander and subjects of his Britannic Majesty to evacuate the port by them called Egmont; a flag offensive to the honour of his crown;—the Prince de Maserano, Ambassador extraordinary of his Catholic Majesty, has received orders to declare, and declares, that his Catholic Majesty, considering the desire with which he is animated for peace, and for the maintenance of good harmony with his Britannic Majesty, and reflecting that this event might interrupt it, has seen with displeasure this expedition tending to disturb it; and in the persuasion in which he is of the reciprocity of sentiments of his Britannic Majesty, and of its being far from his intention to authorize any thing that might disturb the good understanding between the two Courts; his Catholic Majesty does disavow the said violent enterprise; and in consequence the Prince de Maserano declares, that his Catholic Majesty engages to give immediate orders, that things shall be restored in the Great Malouine, at the port called Egmont, precisely to the state in which they were before the 10th of June, 1770; for which purpose his Catholic Majesty will give orders to one of his officers to deliver up to the officer authorized by his Britannic Majesty, the port and fort called Egmont, with all the artillery, stores and effects of his Britannic Majesty, and his subjects, which were at that place the day above named; agreeable to the inventory which has been made of them.

The Prince de Maserano declares, at the same time, in the name of the King his Master, that the engagement of his said Catholic Majesty, to restore to his Britannic Majesty the possession of the fort and port called Egmont, cannot, nor ought, any wise to affect the question of the prior right of sovereignty of the Malouine Islands, otherwise called Falkland's Islands. In witness whereof, I the undersigned Ambassador extraordinary, have signed the present declaration with my usual signature, and caused it to be sealed with our arms. London, the 22d day of January, 1771.

Translation of the Earl of Rochford's acceptance, dated the 22d day of January, 1771, of the Prince de Maserano's declaration of the same date.

"His Catholic Majesty having authorized the Prince de Maserano, his Ambassador extraordinary, to offer in his Majesty's name, to the King of Great-Britain, a satisfaction for the injury done to his Britannic Majesty, by dispossessing him of the port and fort of Port Egmont; and the said Ambassador having signed a declaration, which he has just delivered to me, expressing therein, that his Catholic Majesty being desirous to restore the good harmony and friendship which before subsisted between the two crowns, does disavow the expedition against Port Egmont, in which force has been used against his Britannic Majesty's possessions, commander and subjects; and does also engage that all things shall be immediately restored to the precise situation in which they stood before the 10th of June, 1770. And that his Catholic Majesty shall give orders, in consequence, to one of his officers, to deliver up to the officer authorized by his Britannic Majesty, the port and fort of Port Egmont, as also all his Britannic Majesty's artillery, stores and effects, as well as those of his subjects, according to the inventory which has been made of them. And the said Ambassador having moreover engaged, in his Catholic Majesty's name, that what is contained in the said declaration, shall be carried into effect, by his said Catholic Majesty; and that duplicates of his Catholic Majesty's orders to his officers, shall be delivered into the hands of one of his Britannic Majesty's principal Secretaries of state, within six weeks. His said Britannic Majesty, in order to shew the same friendly disposition on his part, has authorized me to declare, that he will look upon the said declaration of Prince de Maserano, together with the full performance of the said engagement, on the part of his Catholic Majesty, as a satisfaction for the injury done to the crown of Great-Britain. In witness whereof, I, undersigned, one of his Britannic Majesty's principal Secretaries of state, have signed these presents with my usual signature, and caused them to be sealed with our arms. London, the 22d day of January, 1771.

(L. S.) Signed, ROCHFORD.

[As the Minister did not favour the House, neither in writing, nor by Speech, with the King of Spain's instructions to his Ambassador in London; we shall here give what is authentically the purport of them, tho' perhaps it may not be exactly the tenor.

The King of Spain condescends, out of his regard for his loving Brother, the King of France, to relinquish Falkland's Islands. But at the same time protests against any claim the English may set up to the right.]

After the Clerk had read the papers, Lord N---th said, when the merits of the Spanish declaration came under the examination of the House, he would avow the part he had taken in the negotiation.

Mr. D----- moved, that all papers, letters, instructions to our Ministers, &c. &c. relative to the taking of Falkland's Island, and the negotiation with Spain upon the subject, might be laid before the House, to which Lord N---th consented.

Mr. D----- made a foolish quibble about some words in the motion, conveying, as he pretended, a meaning contrary to a part of the K---g's speech at the opening of the present session.

Col. B---e shewed, that the words objected to, were copied exactly from the K---g's speech. He compared Mr. D----- to a know-all, and was very severe against him. He then called the Spanish declaration scandalous and infamous, dishonourable to the crown, and disgraceful to the nation. He said, when the merits of the Declaration came under examination, he should speak fully to it; for he had much to say upon it. But at present he could not help observing, there was not a man in England, who did not condemn that Declaration. What, four months arming! and four months negotiating! and is this all!—The noble Lord (L---d N---th) laid in this House before the holidays, that Spain should pay a part of the expence we have been at, in making preparations to relent the insult. But there is not a word of the expence in the Declaration. The enemy was not ignorant of the weakness and cowardly disposition of the M-----s. The enemy know you dare not go to war (to Lord North) and therefore refuse to make us any satisfaction. There is not an honest man in England, who does not abhor the present sett of M-----s. There is not a petty Prince in Europe, who does not laugh at and despise them. Thus it is in the power of any individual to put us to an enormous expence, and our M-----s dare not revenge the affront. They dare not go to war, because they are afraid they shall lose their places. Thus the nation is exposed to insults abroad, and is left a prey to jobbers and sharpers at home. A French Secretary, being in your secrets, has made near half a million of money by gaming on your funds. And some of the highest among yourselves [Lord H---th, Lord H---d, &c. &c.] have been deeply concerned in the same scandalous traffic. But a day of reckoning will come. This country cannot be quiet, while every thing that is dear and valuable to the people, is thus ravished from them.

Lord N---th denied, that he ever said Spain should pay a part of the expence. He declared he could not have said so, because he had never entertained the least idea of making such a demand.

Col. B---e said, he had not trusted to his own memory only, for his account of that fact. He asked several Members, who all remembered the words.

Mr. B---e said he remembered the words. He condemned the declaration in very severe terms. He called it scandalous, infamous, and treacherous. He said the nation would demand the blood of those that made it. Nothing else could—nothing else would satisfy. This declaration, this wisdom, this spirit of the Ministry, this vindication of the honour of the crown, this security of the rights of the subject, which lies in a nut shell, has cost the nation above two millions of money!—The land-tax was prematurely voted, or rather the country gentlemen have been duped out of 500,000l. The trade of this country has been greatly distressed and injured; 40,000 seamen have been voted, an additional army of 13,000 men have been voted, and they must all be paid; a great number of ships have been put in commission at a great expence to the public; and all this, for what? Why, to procure that scandalous, base and dishonourable declaration that lies upon the table.

The Ministers made no reply.

While Mr. B---e was speaking, there was such a confusion and noise in the room from some of the Members going out, and others coming in, and others talking, that he was obliged to sit down for a short time. When he got up again, he began with words to the following purport: Is this society so irregular, so totally lost to decency and good manners, that I cannot be heard when I am speaking to a question of the utmost importance to these kingdoms in general, and to our constituents in particular? Are the ears of this Assembly to be wilfully misled from giving attention to me, when I am arguing on a point of such a nature, that there must be blood, I say blood, to atone for the misconduct of those who transacted this dark affair? The day may not be immediately at hand; but it cannot, it must not be at a very great distance; it will come, when the lives of some concerned in this business must make atonement to this injured nation.

When the debate was over, several new writs were moved for. But when Mr. W----- was mentioned, the members expressed their contempt of it, by a very loud and dismal groan (such as the Livery of London generally give at Guildhall, to the name of an Alderman whom they dislike) and it was negatived by several of the m-----s crying out no! no! no! A circumstance so extraordinary, and peculiarly disgraceful, as not to have happened in the memory of the oldest member of the H---se of C-----s, and must for ever cover the apostate with shame."

This day at noon the Earl of Rochford, Secretary of State for the Southern Department, sent a letter to the Lord Mayor of this city, of which the following is an exact copy, viz.

"My Lord, St. James's Jan. 22, 1771.
I take the earliest opportunity of informing your Lordship, that the Spanish Ambassador bath this day, at two o'clock, signed a declaration, relative to the expedition against Port Egmont, in Falkland's Island, which his Majesty has been pleased to accept. I am, my Lord, Your Lordship's most obedient humble servant,
ROCHFORD.
Commodore Hervey, Brother to the Earl of Bristol, is made one of the Lords of the Admiralty.

Upon the arrival of the Governor of Buenos Ayres in Old Spain, the King of Spain immediately appointed him Viceroy of Upper Navarre; a post of great honour, power and trust. Does this look like disapproving of his conduct at Falkland's Island?

Jan. 23. It is very extraordinary, but not less true, that all the Ministers of State (one only excepted) have been all along kept strangers to the present negotiation.

We are told that great preparations are making at the Spanish Ambassador's for a grand Gala, on account of the late accommodation between the Courts of London and Madrid.

It was asserted by a man in great power, that the terms with the Spaniards are, to give up Falkland Islands, to pay five hundred thousand pounds by instalments, and to pay the Manilla ransom.

Jan. 24. Yesterday Commissions passed the great seal, for appointing the Earl of Halifax, Secretary of State for the northern department; and also the Earl of Suffolk, keeper of the privy seal; and yesterday they both acted in that capacity.

Yesterday Lord Commissioner Bathurst kissed his Majesty's hand, on being appointed Lord High Chancellor of Great-Britain, with the title of Baron Apsey, of Apsey, in the county of Suffex; as did also Edward Thurlow, Esq; on being appointed Attorney-General; Alexander Wedderburne, Esq; as Solicitor-General; and Mr. De Grey, as Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.

Twelveday night expresses were sent to all the sea-port towns to call in the press warrants, and not to press any more till further orders. It is asserted, that if peace should ensue, 25,000 seamen are to be retained in his Majesty's service for the future.

It is also said, that notwithstanding we are determined upon, that a standing navy will be kept, and that none but the impressed men will be discharged: And volunteers will continue to be received, till the number of men first designed to be raised are completed.

St. James's, Jan. 25. This day the Right Hon. Lord Grantham kissed his Majesty's hand, on being appointed the King's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to his Catholic Majesty.

Jan. 25. The press warrants are not yet called in; but the men of war in commission will be fully manned.

All the military preparations, it is said, are to be carried on till finished, and then to remain on that footing.

Jan. 29. A Levee was appointed to meet yesterday morning at the Queen's palace, for the further consideration of some important matters relating to the Spanish declaration.

It is asserted at the west end of the town, that Lord Harcourt is to go from the court of Versailles to that of Madrid, in order to settle some material matters relating to the declaration concerning Falkland's Islands, before Lord Grantham sets out on his embassy to Madrid.

Jan. 31. No measure of administration was ever so generally condemned, as the new convention with Spain. The nation has been put to at least Three Millions expence! the land-holder, the merchant, and slave-holder, and the tradesman, have each individually, and all collectively suffered; and our Ministers have not obtained from the proud Spaniard, one farthing as a recompence for this great loss. Nor is there a word about the Manilla ransom; that too lies dormant, for fear it should occasion a war. From all that we have seen, of the conduct of our Ministers, this observation will naturally be made by every man, that they act with pusillanimity towards the enemy, and with tyranny to their fellow subjects.

A rumour strongly prevails, that Lord Chatham has actually some very interesting intelligence, relative to the late declaration and acceptance, which he intends to communicate to an august assembly this day.

Wagers are already begun to be laid, that the obligation of the present convention does not bind the powers that have entered into it so long as three months.

We are assured, that Port Egmont shall be immediately retaken, and that in case it shall appear we had not any right, by the law of nations, to take possession of that or any part of Falkland Island, a very convenient harbour at the mouth of the Straits of Magellan, which was discovered by Captain M'Bride, to which the Spaniards cannot pretend to have the least claim, will be fixed upon for the Establishment of an English colony.

It is said that the S-----h convention was extorted from the Court of M----- by the King of F-----, with no less a threat than the dissolution of the family compact, in case of non-compliance.

Lord C-----m, it is said, has by some means obtained an authentic copy of every single paper that passed between G----- B----- and S----- in a late negotiation; and intends, it is said, to compare what he has to what may be delivered in as the whole of that correspondence by the M-----y, whence it is apprehended some important discovery will be made.

It seems highly probable, by the Government's pursuing such vigorous measures for completing the armaments; that the present convention, instead of being the confirmation of peace, will be only the prelude of a war, as happened in the former rupture with Spain, in the time of Sir Robert Walpole's administration.

Pub. It is asserted, that the debate on the Spanish papers, relative to Falkland Island, will not come on next Thursday. The influence of the Premier, it is now said, will occasion the consideration of that matter to be postponed sine die.

An express is sent down from the Admiralty to the Commissioner of his Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, to keep all the artificers still at work as briskly as possible: Sunday included.

It is asserted, that the present pacific appearance of affairs will not be of long duration, and that the lately signed declaration will bring on an altercation which must end in war.

Feb. 5. An article in the Dutch mail arrived yesterday, dated Madrid, Jan. 3, says, "Every thing in this kingdom denotes approaching war; and the continual preparations for hostilities confirm us more and more in that idea."

Among the many people disgusted and disappointed by the strange termination of the late dispute with Spain, those who displayed so much zeal for the honour of their country, by giving bounty money to sailors, make a very principal figure;—and indeed it is very provoking, that they who drained their purses so fast for the public good, should find the whole turn out at last to be-----a bubble.

N E W - Y O R K, April 8.

Wednesday last the Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Bolderson, sailed from hence with the Mail for Falmouth.

A Brig and a Snow sailed from Liverpool for Philadelphia ten Days before Capt. Betton; and he sailed from thence in Company with a Ship for Virginia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.

The following is the Substance of several Letters from London, by the Captains Falconer and Christie, viz.

January 22. "The Parliament met To-day, and this Morning it is confirmed that Lord Sandwich on Saturday Night signed the Convention with Spain, which, it is said, is ample, so all is Peace, and Funds rise amazingly in Consequence thereof. If the Peace (for so it is termed) is approved, and can stand, the present Administration is firm as a Rock."

January 23. "On the Report of our Differences with Spain being intirely settled, East-India Stock got up from 180 to 225; Bank Stock from 133 to 151; Three per Cent. consolidated Annuities from 76 to 86; and all other Stocks in Proportion. The Parliament met Yesterday, when Lord North declared in the House, that the Affairs, in regard to Falkland Island, was amicably made up; whether this will have a farther Effect upon the Stocks (they being now almost as high as before the War was talked of) or not, I cannot say; but this I can say, with Certainty, that the Convention is generally disliked, and believed, at the same time, by most People, that it will not be lasting."

January 24. "On the Day of the meeting of Parliament, the Spanish Ambassador signed the Convention with Spain, and all is Peace; but there is a Call of the House for Tuesday Se'night, when the same will be taken into Consideration; some have their Doubts what the Result may be; for my Part, I am confident the Strength of Administration can carry any Measure with a prodigious Majority; in the mean time the Press Warrants are called in. How long this uncommon Peace may last, is a Question too difficult to determine."

January 27. "The popular Railings against Administration still continue violent; and the Accommodation of the Affairs of Falkland Island with the Court of Madrid, upon Terms, generally esteemed dishonourable to the Nation, greatly increases the Clamour."

We learn further, that the People in England are greatly dissatisfied with the Convention: That a Call had been made in the House of Lords, by the Opposition, for all the Papers, relative to the Affairs of Falkland Island, to be laid before them for Examination; but that the same was evaded by the ministerial Party: And that in the Month of January, the Weather was very severe in London, and a great Number of Ships were drove from their Moorings by the Ice, some were sunk, and others received considerable Damage.

On the 28th ult. died JOSEPH PENNOCK, Esq; of Upper Marlborough, in Chester County, one of the People called Quakers, in the 95th Year of his Age. He came into this Province when he was about 20 Years old, and was very early in Life chosen one of our Representatives, in which Capacity he served his Country with Ability and Integrity. After continuing many Years a valuable Member of the Assembly, he retired from public Business with the Esteem of all who knew him. In his private Life, few have equalled, and hardly any excelled him. Besides the common Offices which denominate a good Neighbour, he had acquired by Reading, and Conversation with Gentlemen of the Faculty, a considerable Knowledge in Physic. This he employed frequently for the Advantage of his Friends, Acquaintance, and more especially the Poor, without any pecuniary Reward. His political and religious Principles were generous and open, equally bespeaking his thorough Belief of the Golden Rule, Whatsoever ye would that Men should do to you, do ye even so to them. There was such native Dignity expressed in his Countenance, that forbade all Indecorum before him, and yet at the same Time, invited to innocent Cheerfulness; "for he never checked any decent Joy." Temperance, joined with Hospitality, ever graced his Board. He had a natural Politeness, and Sweetness of Manners, that irresistibly attracted Respect and Love from all: He indeed had the happy Art which very few attain to, "who laughing, could instruct." It may be truly said of him, that he shone conspicuous in the various Stations he acted in. And to crown the whole of this exemplary Patriarch's Character, he lived the Christian from his Youth to his Exit.

On the First Instant died JOSEPH STRETCH, Esq; of this City, of a lingering Disorder, which he bore between 5 and 6 Years with remarkable Patience and Resignation to the Divine Will. He was a Representative for the County of Philadelphia several Years, and served most of the Offices of Government in the City and County where he lived, with Honour and Fidelity. His Sweetness of Temper, and benevolent Disposition, endeared him to a numerous Acquaintance, who, with a sorrowful Widow and Family, he has left to bewail his Loss. He was a kind Husband, a tender Parent, and good Master, compassionate to the Poor and Distressed. Of him it may be truly said, that he liberally possessed every Virtue that adorns the human Mind. On Thursday following his Corps was attended by a large Number of his Relations and Fellow Citizens to the Quakers Burial Ground (of which Society he was a Member) and there decently interred.

Captain Falconer, from London, on the 3d Instant, about 80 Leagues from Cape-Henry, spoke with Captain Green, in a Ship of this Port, bound to Lisbon from Virginia, 4 Days out, all well.

Captain Carr, from Bristol, on the 15th of February made the Island of Palma, and on the 24th, in Lat. 25: 40, Long. 23: 29, he saw a Rock, bearing S. S. E. about a Mile from him; it appeared to be about the Size of a large Ship, and so high above Water, that he saw it at five Miles Distance; it bears from the West End of Madeira, South-west, Half South, and is about 167 Leagues from thence, which he thinks ought carefully to be avoided. On the 19th of last Month, in Lat. 21: 40, Long. 50, he spoke a Brig, Captain Dashiell, from Virginia for Barbados, 17 Days out; and on the 26th, in Lat. 25: 49, Long. 64: 26, he spoke with Captain Stafford, in a Schooner from North-Carolina for this Place, out 26 Days, who had left his Mainmast in a Gale of Wind; had lost all the Tar from off his Deck, and was then bearing away for Jamaica, being in great Want of Provisions and Water, Captain Carr supplied him with a sufficient Quantity for three Weeks.

Captain Christie, from London, on the 3d Instant, in Lat. 35: 13, Long. 70: 43, spoke a Sloop from New-York for St. Croix, 4 Days out; and on the 5th, in Lat. 36, Long. 72, he spoke a Schooner, Captain Back, from Virginia for Barbados, two Days out, all well.

Captain Robinson, from Lisbon, twelve Days ago, about 50 Leagues from our Capes, spoke a Sloop, Captain Campbell, from New-York for Coracao, two Days out, all well.

The Captains McCullough and Mullowney, are arrived at Cork; and Captain Mackey at Londonderry; all from this Port.

Last Saturday Night, about 12 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the House of Mr. Thomas Rogers, in Front-street, which was mostly consumed, and two other Houses adjoining greatly damaged. The Fire was first discovered at the back Part of the House, and presently communicated to the Room where Mr. Rogers slept, who perished in the Flames. Mrs. Baxter, an aged Woman, who lay in an upper Room, was suffocated with the Smoke, and died before she could be got out; two of Mr. Rogers's Grandchildren in the same Room with her, were taken out alive, by the Resolution and Activity of a Sailor, after Part of the Roof had fallen in; but they were so far overcome by the Smoke, and playing of the Engines, that they are since dead. Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Baxter, a young Man, and a Negro Woman, escaped with great Difficulty. Provisionally there was no Wind, or the Consequence must have been fatal to the Houses in that Neighbourhood.

At a General Meeting of the PHILADELPHIA CONTRIBUTION-SHIP for enjoining of Houses from Leys by Fire, held at the Court-House, the Eighth Instant, the following Persons were chosen Directors and Treasurer for the ensuing Year, viz.

DIRECTORS, Isaac Jones, Samuel Shoemaker, Joshua Howell, Alexander Hutton, Joseph Fox, David Dehler, Jacob Shoemaker, junior, Peter Reeve, Jonathan Evans, Luke Morris, Gunning Bedford, and Samuel Wetherill, junior. TREASURER, James Pemberton.

On Tuesday last, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, came on the Trials of John Thomson, and Elizabeth Grant, for Burglary, when they were both convicted.

Jacob Craibhouse was also tried for Burglary, of which he was acquitted, but found guilty of Larceny, in stealing £1050.

And John Gain (a blind Man) was indicted for Manslaughter, and convicted.

N. B. The chief motive which induces the Subscriber to make sale of the aforesaid, is owing to a considerable purchase of lands that he made in Virginia government, which requires his commanding eye towards the improvement of the same.

Philadelphia, March 10, 1771.

ON the 9th day of May next, at the London Coffee-house, in the said city, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, will begin the sale of THREE valuable TRACTS of LAND, formerly supposed in Worcester county, in Maryland, but now known to be within the grant of the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, at the heads of the branches of Indian and Pokamook rivers, into which the whole may be easily drained, and are known by the names of Unity Grove, with its refinery, and Lebanon, lately purchased by John Pennel, of Colonel John Dagworthy, and now under the care and management of John Jones, consisting of the finest and best of cedar swamp, gum, and maple swamps, the upland abounding in beach, poplar, pines, white and other oaks, all of a surprising growth, containing in the whole near 4000 acres, and all but the refinery old patent land, at Two Shillings a hundred quirent; the whole to be divided into smaller tracts, as may best suit the purchasers, except the tract called Unity Grove, which contains about 800 acres, has on it the houses, gardens, and other improvements, and near 300 acres thereof are choice cedar swamp, for which reason, it is thought, it cannot well be divided into parcels. On the refinery adjoining it is a complete well constructed saw-mill, built last year, with the best of stuff, well covered with cedar shingles, it being on the verge of the cedar swamp, may have an inexhaustible supply for ages, of the best cedar, pine, gum, beach, poplar, white oak, maple, holly, &c. this tract contains 900 acres, blended with very rich swamp, and rich upland, easy of culture. The tract called Lebanon, of 2160 acres of the same quality, being also interspersed with rich cedar and gum swamps, and large timber trees, of divers sorts; both Unity Grove and Lebanon are within 7 miles of navigable water to Philadelphia. A plan of the whole, with their several divisions, may be seen at the London Coffee-house, and at the houses of John Reynell, and John Miffin, in Philadelphia, trustees for the creditors; on paying one third of the purchase-money down, 12 months credit will be given for the remainder, on giving good security, and paying interest from the day of sale.
